Exchange is a volunteer organization, national in scope, with clubs and centers throughout the country whose primary national project is the prevention of child abuse. The Exchange motto is "Unity for Service" which embodies the spirit of volunteerism in America – people helping others in their communities and asking nothing in return. Exchangites take great satisfaction in giving of their time and talents to discharge their duty to their fellow citizens, their communities and their nation. Exchange sponsors programs grounded in Americanism, Community Service, Community Improvement, Service to Seniors and Youth Programs with its primary national project being the prevention of child abuse.
